

DOG EAT DOG From the Musical "SARATOGA"

Lyric by JOHNNY MERCER Music by HAROLD ARLEN

Oh! The strong take the mon - ey from the weak And the smart take the mon - ey from the strong; You can say what you want to, but it's dog eat dog And there is no right or wrong. It's the law of the jun - gle and the sea, Ev - 'ry pond has a big - gest lit - tle frog. It's a race for sur - vi - val, it's a fight to the death And for all your flight - y, high and might - y fan - cy talk, It's dog eat dog eat dog!

A GAME OF POKER From the Musical "SARATOGA"

Lyric by JOHNNY MERCER Music by HAROLD ARLEN

Love is a game of po - ker, Ev - 'ry - thing's wild and the chips are down; One night you may draw the jo - ker, Next night you may own the town. One look at the cards they've tossed you, One look at her, you de - cide to play. You stay, but they've dou - ble crossed you And your hunch has cost you more than you can pay. You've won, but oh, you've lost your heart a - long the way.

GOOSE NEVER BE A PEACOCK From the Musical "SARATOGA"

Lyric by JOHNNY MERCER Music by HAROLD ARLEN

F' in - stance, goose nev - er be a pea - cock, Don't I know! Crow try to be a jay bird, He still crow. Bust his cack - le in two, still can't sing, Got no feath - ers of blue on his wing. A hawk try to be a ea - gle, Down he fall, So don't walk a - round all big - ge - ty like, or squinch - i - fy up too small; 'Cause may - be you is the pret - ti - est of them all!
