

SEPTEMBER SONG

From the Musical "KNICKERBOCKER HOLIDAY"

Lyric by MAXWELL ANDERSON
Music by KURT WEILL

Moderately slow

Oh, it's a long, long while from May to De - cem - ber, but the days grow short, when you reach Sep - tem - ber. When the au - tumn weath - er turns the leaves to flame one has-n't got time for the wait - ing game. Oh, the days dwindle down to a pre - cious few, Sep - tem - ber, No - vem - ber!
And these few pre - cious days I'll spend with you, These pre-cious days I'll spend with you.

A SNAKE IN THE GRASS

From the Film "THE LITTLE PRINCE"

Music by FREDERICK LOEWE
Words by ALAN JAY LERNER

If you would like to cure the fe-ver called life. Get some re-lief from all the strug-gle and strife;
The grand-est med-i-cine that I can pro-pose is un-der your nose: A snake in the grass.
If you would like a spot where life nev - er goes; Where you can leave your bod-y home in your clothes;
The fin-est trav-el a-gent you'll ev - er meet is right at your feet: A snake in the grass.
One sting! and you can say good-bye to all of your friends. One sting! And you'll be sing - ing as your spir - it as - cends. All's well that ends.
