1. I hope he looks so dev - 'lish that I al - most faint a - way; I
(2. I) hope he owns a Ro - man vil - la and a French cha - teau; And
(3. I) hope he's most ex - pe - ri - enced and that his past has been So hope that he will kiss me with - out ask - ing if he may. I hope he meas - ures has a year - ly in - come of a mil - lion pounds or so. And yet he should live ab - so - lute - ly lu - rid, it would turn a Don Juan green. For each blue - blood - ed ten feet tall, with shoul - ders I can't span. But most of all, I hope he is sim - ply, yes, as on - ly rich men can. But most of all, I hope he is A Eng - lish girl, since Eng - land first he - gan, Has lived her whole life just to meet tru - ly wick - ed man. I've nev - er known A wick - ed man And yet he's in my ev - 'ry dream. My ev - 'ry dream, My ev - 'ry plan Is just to meet A wick - ed man.

2. I
3. I man. A love - ly

dream, a love - ly plan, a love - ly theme, I'd love to know

A wick - ed man.
