

DON'T EXPECT ME TO BE YOUR FRIEND

By LOBO

Moderato f

(1.) I stopped send-ing flow-ers to your a-part-ment. You said you weren't at (2.) Some-times late at night you'll still call me, Just be-fore you home much an-y-more, I stopped drop-ping by with-out an ap-point-ment, close your eyes to sleep. You make me vow to try and stop by some-time,
 'Cause I'd hear laugh-ter com-ing thru your door. prom-ise I can't keep.
 But ba-by that's a I love you too much to ev-er start lik-in' you. So let's just let the stor-y kind-a end. Don't ex-pect me to be your friend.

Copyright © 1972 by Famous Music Corporation and Kaiser Music Co. Inc., New York, N.Y.

DEAR GOD

Slowly, with expression

Words and Music by LEN CHIRIACKA and CHRIS GANTRY

Dear God, I do prom-ise nev-er to pos-sess, hoard or hold.
 tem-per me with warmth and kind-ness judg-ing no one as I go.
 And Let me be of le-nient na-ture to all souls a-long the road,
 if my broth-ers damn my pres-ence, let for-give-ness
 And through me flow.
 Help me laugh at my temp-ta-tions, Keep my choic-es firm and fair.
 If the lost are need-ing com-fort, let my hands reach out to them
 Dear God, who's this ten-der stran-ger, cry-ing cold and all a-lone.
 Dear God, she casts your re-flec-tion, God, I feel I'm fin-ally home.

Copyright © 1974 by Famous Music Corporation and Ensign Music Corporation, New York, N.Y.