Music and Lyric by WALTER MARKS

Guar-an-tees are made for shirts that nev-er shrink And soaps that clean your sink and hall-ways; When it comes to love there is no guar-an-tee That what you feel will be for al-ways. But don't shy clear of love, just for fear of love, Seize it when it first fills your heart; Be a lit-tle pre-ma-ture, Love can grow and be ma-ture, On-ly if you trust it from the start.

HONEST MAN From the Musical "BAJOUR"

It's a pleas-ure do-in' bus-'ness with an hon-est man, With a guy who ain't just look-in' for a buck; Soon our chil-dren will be wed and we'll both come out a-head, So I want to wish you lots of luck. (lots of luck.) It's a pleas-ure do-in' bus-'ness with an hon-est man, Who will nev-er do you in or do you ill; I can tell you that I've heard that you al-ways keep your word And I'm ab-so-lute-ly sure you will. (sure you will) Now we're part-ners, How-dy, pard, Shake hands part-ner, Ow! not so hard! It's a pleas-ure do-in' bus-'ness with an hon-est man, You can trust him not to lie or cheat or slink; Dem-bo I be-lieve in you, New-ark, I be-lieve you, too, Well, I'm glad to know that's what you think. (that's what you think!) When you're do-in' bus-'ness with a sin-cere guy, Then you give him the bus-'ness when you can. I could nev-er swin-dle you, 'cause ev-'ry-bod-y knows it's true, That you can't cheat an hon-est man, not while he's look-in', No you can't cheat an hon-est No you can't cheat an hon-est No you can't cheat an hon-est man!
