

PETTICOATS OF PORTUGAL (Rapariga Do Portugal)

537

MICHAEL DURSO, MEL MITCHELL
and MURL KAHN

When breez - es blow pet-ti-coats of Port-u - gal, There's quite a show

On the streets of Port-u - gal; Each pass-er - by winks his eye, whis-tles and smiles, The ooh's and ah's loud hur - rahs, ech-o for miles; Those shape - ly gams,

'neath pet - ti - coats of Port - u - gal, Start traf - fic jams, But the cop on the square does-n't care! There's not a guy a-live who does - n't thrive on watch - ing skirts blow free! Es-pe-cial - ly, the pet - ti-coats of Port - u - gal; Where breez - es gal.

1. G Eb7 D7 2. G Eb7 Am7 G

Copyright © 1956 by Chario Corp., New York, N.Y. Used by permission.

PANCHO From the Film "THE TRUMPET BLOWS"

LEO ROBINS and RALPH RAINGER

Peer - less, fear - less, Strong - er than ten; Pan - cho, Pan - cho was Kind - est of men. Though the grass is green a - bove him, may an - gels re - ward him.

Man - y peo - ple used to love him and chil - dren a - dored him. Pan - cho, Pan - cho, No - ble and brave; Pan - cho, Pan - cho, Lies in his grave.

Copyright © 1934 by Famous Music Corporation. Copyright renewed 1961. Used by permission.