

WILDWOOD WEED

By JIM STAFFORD and DON BOWMAN

Moderate Country Style

C Am G C

(Spoken)
 Wild-woodflow-er grew wild on the farm and we nev-er knowed what it was called I come to and my broth-er was there and he said, "What's wrong with your eyes?"
 very next day we picked a bunch of them weeds and we put 'em in the sun to dry.

3 Am 3 G 3

Some said it was a flow'r and some said it was a weed, I did - n't give it much thought.
 "I don't know, I was chew-in' on the weed," he said, "Let me give it a try."
 Mashed 'em up and we cleaned 'em off, put 'em in the corn-cob pot.

C Dm B C C7 3

We spent the One day I was out there talk - in' to my broth-er and I rest of that day and most of that night try'n to Smok-in' them wild-wood flow-ers got to be a hab-it

F 3 C Am reached down for a weed to chew on. Things got fuz-zy and things got blur-ry, and find my broth-er Bill, Caught up with him a-bout six o' clock the next morn-in', we nev-er seen no harm, We thought it was kind-a handy, take a

G C

then ev-'ry-thing was gone. Did - n't know what na-ked, sing-in' on the windmill, (He said he flew up there) trip and nev-er leave the farm. (Big ol' puff of that wild-wood weed,

Am G C (Instrumental) 1. Dm B

hap-pened but I knew it beat the hell out of sniff-ing bur-lap.
 I had to fly up and get him down, he was a-bout half cra-zy.
 Next thing you know you're just wand'ring 'round behind the lit-tle animals.

2. Dm B 3. Dm B C Am

The All good things got to come to an end, it's the same with the wild-wood weeds. One day this fel-ler from Wash-ing-ton come by and spied.

G C Am

G 3 C Dm B C

one and turned white as a sheet. And they dug and they burned and they burned and they dug and they kill all our cute lit-tle weeds and then they drove a-way;

F 3 C

Am tacet G C

We just smiled and waved sit-tin' there on that sack o' seeds "Y" all come back now, y' hear!"