(Intro)

(4x's)

Head is played twice;
then solos on [A];
after solos, D.S. al Coda.

2nd VERSE

You left me with a Keno card,
This life in Vegas sure ain't hard,
I ran it up to fifty grand,
Cashed in and held it in my hand,
That kind of word can get around
And make a lost love turn up found,
I hear you knockin' at my door
But you know you ain't livin' here no more,
It's too bad, baby, I think you made your move too soon.

3rd VERSE

I've been from Spain to Tokyo,
From Africa to Ohio,
I never try to make the news,
I'm just a man who plays the blues,
I take my loving everywhere,
I come back and they still care,
One love ahead, one love behind,
One in my arms and one on my mind,
One thing they know: I never make my move too soon.

Bass line varies somewhat for solos.

Played as a shuffle on Jimcstine Anderson's LP of the same name. Bass & piano play shuffle instead of written line.
